

GE Datex CardioCap 5 Anesthesia Monitor - Refurbished

Stock Photo – Options May Vary

The Datex CardioCap 5 Anesthesia Monitor is a compact anesthesia monitor that can be mounted in various configurations to save space. This anesthesia monitor features normal parameters, such as ECG (3 or 5 lead), SpO₂, NIBP, and Temp, but also CO₂, 5 Agent Anesthesia Gas with ID and FiO₂. The CardioCap 5 also has a built-in thermal printer and links with many EMR systems.

This anesthesia monitor works with any anesthesia machine and is renowned as a unit of choice for anesthesiologists worldwide.

The Datex CardioCap 5 comes completely refurbished with a comprehensive warranty.

- 10.4" LCD Color Display
- User Configurable Layout and Color Options
- ECG, NIBP, SpO₂, Co₂ and 5 Agent Analysis
- FiO₂
- Automatic Agent Identification
- Thermal Recorder (Printer)
- Anesthesia Alarms
- 24 Hour Graphical Trends
- Displays up to 6 Waveforms
- Built-In Battery Pack
- Easy Setup and User-Friendly Interface
- Accepts Low Cost Canulas for Gas Monitoring
- Proven Datex-Ohmeda intuitive user interface, including anesthesia-dedicated menu logic and alarm philosophy
- Completely Refurbished

Specifications:

- 10.4" LCD Color Display
- Display Resolution: 640 x 480
- Dims: 13" W x 8.7" D x 11.8" H
- ECG: 3 or 5 Lead
- Weight (unit only): 24.8 lbs
- Power Requirement: 120v

Brochure and images are a general overview of the product.
Actual product options may vary.*